DRDP Campus Tour | March 22, 2024

The Davao de Oro State College (DDOSC) Main Campus successfully hosted the 2nd Davao Regional Development Plan (DRDP) Campus Tour on March 22 at the College Activity Center, with the theme "#LetsDare: Leading Inclusive Transformation for a Sustainable Davao Region." The activity was initiated and led by the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) Regional Development Council XI in support of the goals of the DRDP 2023–2028.

The activity provided students and other participants with an opportunity to understand the region's development priorities and the importance of youth participation in achieving inclusive and sustainable regional development. Dr. Christie Jean V. Ganiera, CESE, College President of DDOSC, delivered the opening message, encouraging the youth and the academe to actively contribute to the development of Davao Region. Meanwhile, Priscilla R. Sonido, CESO III, Regional Director of NEDA Regional Office XI, discussed the long-term national vision of achieving a "matatag, maginhawa, at panatag na buhay para sa lahat" by 2040.

The campus tour highlighted key development initiatives in health, education and lifelong learning, income-generating opportunities, and research and development. It also emphasized the significant role of the youth in promoting regional development through advocacy, awareness campaigns, dialogue, volunteerism, and support for local initiatives.

The activity was attended by representatives from State Universities and Colleges (SUCs), Local Universities and Colleges (LUCs), private Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), community-based youth organizations, and Sangguniang Kabataan. Participants demonstrated their understanding of the DRDP's priorities through an interactive question-and-answer session.

Through this initiative, DDOSC strengthened its support for youth engagement, multi-sectoral collaboration, and awareness of regional development priorities, contributing to the promotion of inclusive and sustainable development in Davao Region.

Job Fair | June 1, 2024

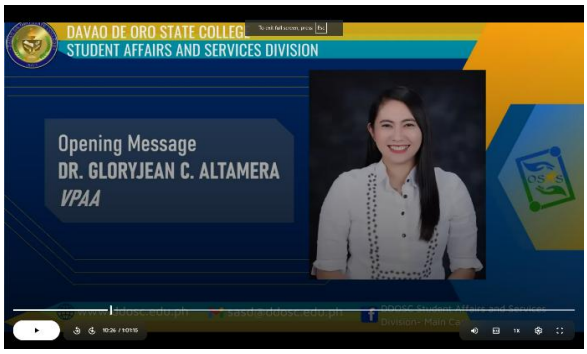

Graduating students and alumni of Davao de Oro State College from all campuses bustled at the Job Fair as they eagerly sought promising career opportunities today, June 1, 2024 at DDOSC Main Campus Activity Center.

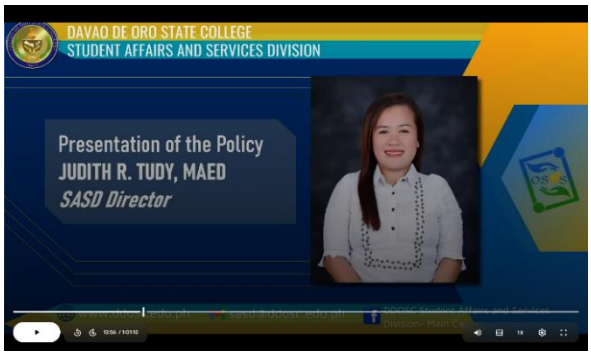

The event was organized by the DDOSC Career and Job Placement Unit in partnership with the Public Employment Service Office (PESO) of LGU Compostela.

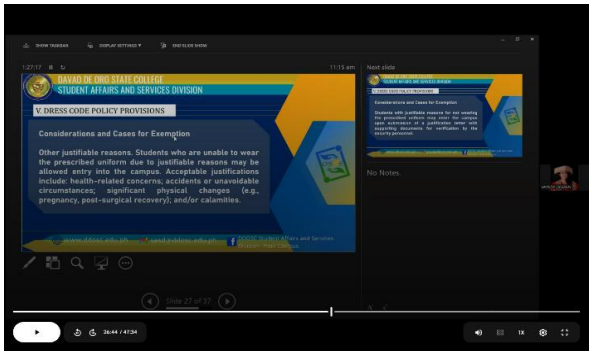

The Job Fair boasted participation from six esteemed government agencies: Department of Labor and Employment - Davao de Oro Field Office (DOLE), National Bureau of Investigation (NBI), Pag-ibig Fund Nabunturan Branch, Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth), Philippine Statistics Office (PSA), and Social Security System (SSS), each offering invaluable services and support to the attendees.

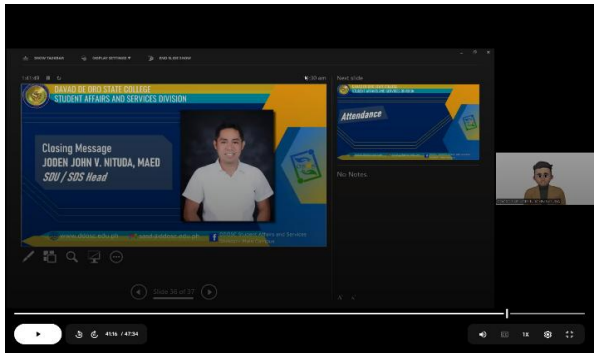

In addition to governmental support, the Job Fair also welcomed the participation of nine private companies from industry giants like Toyota Tagum City and VXI Global Holdings, local enterprises such as A+ Tutorials and Gaisano Grand Nabunturan, Amesco Drug, 3ME Manpower Services, Prycegas Inc., JEWM Agro-Industrial Corporation, and 1st Northern International Placement, Inc., and the array of participating organizations represented a variety of sectors and opportunities.

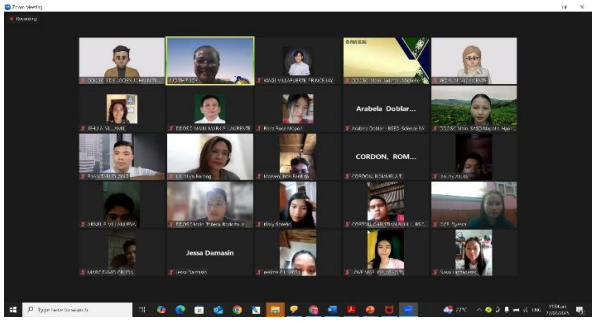

Stakeholders' Consultation on the Proposed Revised Dress Code Policy | February 27, 2025

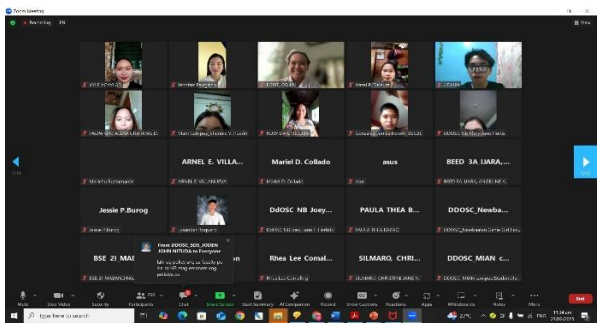

The Stakeholders' Consultation on the Proposed Revised Dress Code Policy for Students was held on February 27, 2025, via Zoom, with the session commencing at 9:30 AM. The consultation, led by Ms. Judith R. Tudy, MAEd, Director of the SAS Division, began with an opening prayer, the national anthem, and the DDOSC hymn. Dr. Gloryjean C. Altamera, Vice President for Academic Affairs, provided the opening message. Ms. Tudy then presented the rationale behind updating the Dress Code Policy, emphasizing the need to align the provisions with modern standards and institutional mandates. Key aspects of the policy included provisions for gender expression, the prescribed school uniform, and guidelines for hair, accessories, and physical education attire. Ms. Tudy also addressed the proposed allowances for cross-dressing based on gender identity and outlined the exemptions related to medical or cultural reasons.

During the open forum, several stakeholders raised concerns and questions about the inclusivity of the policy, particularly regarding cross-dressing and facilities for students with diverse SOGIE.

Ms. Tudy clarified that the policy allows students to dress in accordance with their gender identity, as long as it aligns with the institution's standards for neatness and professionalism. Discussions also included the allowance for students to wear alternative uniforms based on gender preference and provisions for pregnant students. The consultation highlighted the importance of creating facilities that accommodate diverse needs, though funding and implementation timelines were noted as challenges. The meeting concluded with further clarification on the approval process and a reminder that the final decision rests with the college administration. The session adjourned at 11:35 AM after addressing all concerns and receiving no additional comments.

Eat and Run 2025 | April 12, 2025

Davao de Oro State College (DDOSC) Maragusan Campus successfully conducted "Eat and Run 2025: Dagan Para sa Eskwelahan" on April 12, 2025, bringing together alumni, students, faculty, staff, and open-category participants in a fundraising fun run aimed at supporting campus improvements.

The activity combined physical fitness, community engagement, and local food appreciation through four designated food stations along the running route. Participants enjoyed fresh tropical fruits, native delicacies, ice cream, and lechon baboy as they traversed the route from the campus through nearby communities and back to the starting point.

The initiative aimed to generate funds for campus improvement, particularly the provision of additional benches to create a more comfortable, accessible, and student-friendly learning environment.

Through this activity, DDOSC Maragusan Campus strengthened community involvement, promoted health and wellness, and mobilized support for student-centered campus development initiatives. The event demonstrated the College community's collective commitment to improving campus facilities through meaningful and engaging fundraising activities.
